11 Wren Street, Mount Pleasant

Sold For Record Price By Kim Turner Real Estate

Beautifully renovated and extended this family sized character home could steal your heart! Not to mention the enormous development potential as a quarter acre in the 6-8 storey residential zoning of the Canning Bridge Structure Plan (CBSP)!

Possibly being one of the most sought after properties as it provides both a luxury lifestyle in a premium location, as well as huge potential from an investor's point of view. The block is a level, regular shaped, 1,014sqm parcel in the 6-8 storey zoning of the CBSP, which is suitable for 6 - 8 storeys, 20+ unit apartment building. Ask the exclusive selling agents at Salt Property Group for concept plans and further information on the development potential of this site.

Even without the development potential of the site, buyers would still trip over one another to live in such a beautifully renovated and luxurious family home. The high ceilings and large rooms are warm and welcoming, multiple living areas provide both communal family areas and room for entertaining. A large renovated kitchen with supersized appliances draws, cabinets and bench space allows for a hugely enjoyable cooking experience. The gorgeous sparkling pool and backyard space is the ideal place for creating magical family moments. Providing all of the small conveniences and comfort you'd expect from a luxurious Mount Pleasant home, this address is a must-see before settling for anywhere else!
