12 Cataby Place, Tapping

Prepare to be impressed - sure to please

There is just so much to love about this home, from its striking facade with multi-coloured brickwork to the elegant decor and the roomy backyard, which includes a special treat.

Inside there is a formal lounge/theatre room with double doors that let you close the room off and enjoy your movies or music without disturbing the rest of the household.

There is also a large open-plan living/dining/kitchen area/games room with timber-look flooring and space to set up a pool table or activity area for the kids.

Sliding doors open to the backyard where there is fun to be had.

You can have breakfast, brunch and barbecue dinners in the entertaining area with limestone paving and pitched roof and host other celebrations with family and friends.

A fantastic indulgence is an elevated deck perfect space for a spa, something everyone is sure to enjoy - particularly after a hard week at work or school.

The backyard also includes mature trees, garden beds and lawn where you can set up a trampoline or swing set if you have young children or your dog can do zoomies or just loll about in the sunshine.
